Entire Republican State Ticket Save Governor, Elected.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Washington, November 6. — Safe majorities for the Republicans in both houses of Congress were claimed by the Republican National Committee on the basis of returns to headquarters at ten o'clock this morning.

These returns, Secretary James B. Reynolds said, showed 50 Republican senators and 230 Republican representatives elected with good prospects of larger majorities in both houses.

DRY LEGISLATION CHOSEN IN OHIO

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Columbus, O., November 6. — The Ohio Legislature which was elected yesterday and which will meet in January will be favorable to ratification of the Federal prohibition amendment, according to a statement issued today by James A. White, Superintendent of the Ohio Anti-Saloon League.

Of the 126 members of the lower house at least 85 and possibly 90, making a large majority, will vote for ratification.

Of the 33 members of the Senate more than 20 will favor ratification, he claimed.

REPUBLICANS ELECT ALL SAVE WILLIS

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Columbus, O., November 6. — Statisticians in the office of the Secretary of State, the chief election officer in Ohio, declared shortly before noon today that the entire Republican state ticket with the exception of Willis may have been elected. They stated that the vote so far received at that office would so indicate.

WETS LEADING

By Associated Press Dispatch.

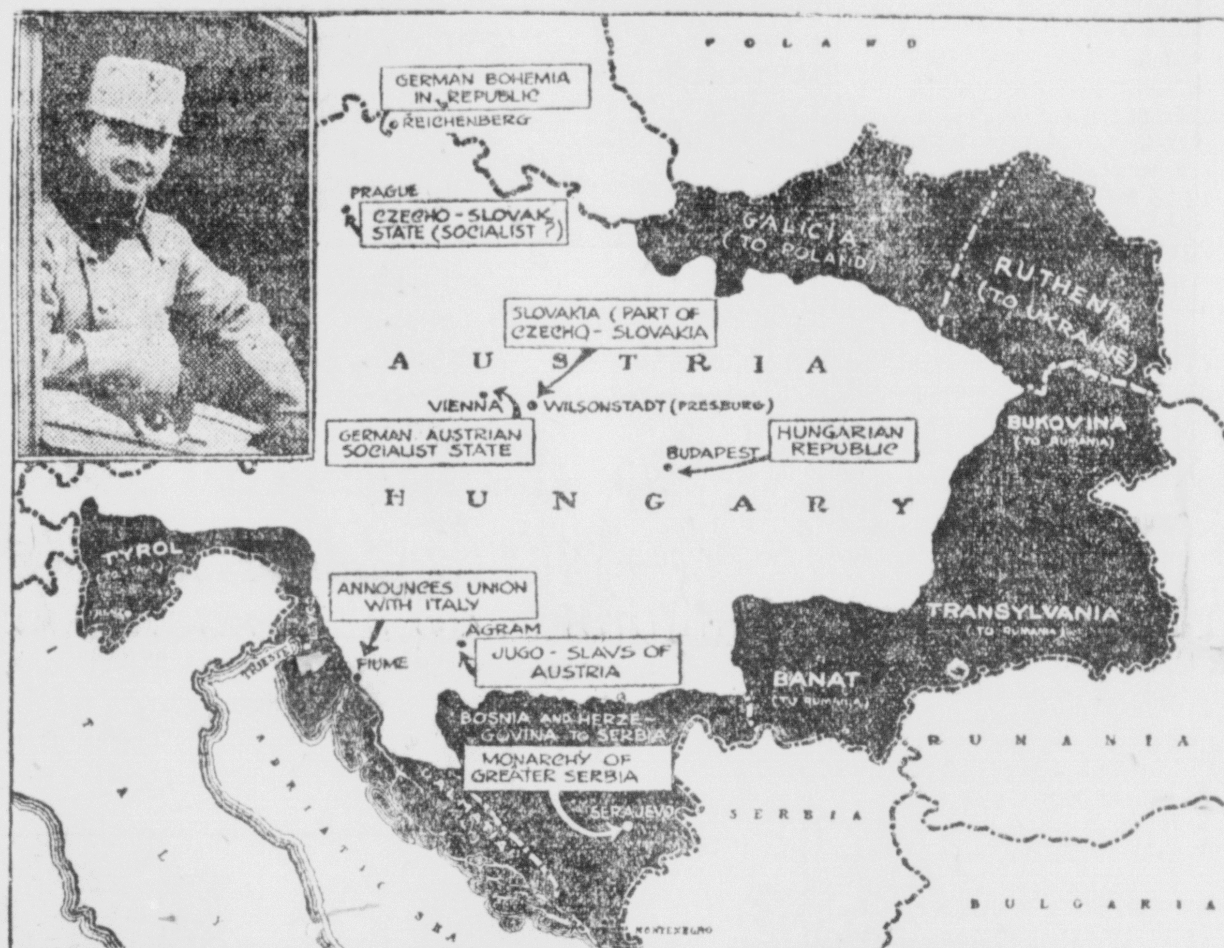

Columbus, November 6. — Returns from 4336 out of 5756 precincts at noon today gave 324,220 votes for prohibition and 341,398 votes against. This gives the wets a majority of 17,178. Approximately 1400 precincts mostly rural, are still to be heard from.

CENTRES OF NEW NATIONS

The breaking up of Austria-Hungary has resulted in the setting up of new national capitals in all parts of the monarchy. The Germans of Bohemia have established their Government at Reichenberg, Prague is the Czechoslovak headquarters and Wilsonstadt, renamed in honor of President Wilson, is the capital of Slovakia. Vienna is in the hands of the new Socialist Government and Budapest is the capital of the Hungarian Republic. Prague and Agram are both centres of Jugo-Slav Government and may be parts of the same movement. Fiume, the seaport of Croatia, would join with Italy. The solid black areas indicate the parts which will probably be annexed to countries adjoining the Dual Monarchy. The inset is of Kaiser Karl, "the last of the Hapsburgs" who has left Vienna to the revolutionaries.

to hear from this afternoon Governor Cox was leading his opponent by a majority slightly in excess of 26,000. The vote stood: 4866 precincts, Cox 411,080; Willis 384,905.

COX STATEMENT

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Dayton, O., November 6. — Governor James M. Cox at his home here today gave out the following statement:

"The result of the gubernatorial contest is especially gratifying when the elements that made it are analyzed. Every disloyal citizen in Ohio voted against me and I thank God for it.

"It is a strengthening thought that those whose hearts were not tied into our great cause for world wide justice came to the polls, resenting what Ohio has done for the nation and our soldiers.

"It is a tribute to service rendered that mere words cannot phrase.

"Political lines were forgotten in the state contest and farm and business men joined in a common conduct of what the suffrage obligation was. While no campaign was made by me, it was apparent weeks ago that a compact was on between political leaders and those who have sought to embarrass the nation at every turn.

"That repudiation of such methods came at the hands of men of all political parties is an impressive symptom of suffrage responsibility. I wish it were possible for me to put my emotions of gratitude to the loyal people of our great state into words. The commission comes under circumstances most unusual and it will be honored and respected.

WILLIS' STATEMENT

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Delaware, O., November 6. — Shortly before noon today Former Governor Frank B. Willis, republican, who was defeated for re-election yesterday, by Gov. James M. Cox, democrat, sent the following telegram to Governor Cox at his home in Dayton:

"I congratulate you on your re-election as governor."

At the same time Willis gave out the following statement:

"I am highly gratified that there has been such extensive gains in the republican representation in Congress and that such a large percentage of republican county and legislative tickets have been elected; returns indicate that Ohio has gone dry; I trust this is so, and if I have contributed in any way to any of these results, I am glad. To Republican organizations and active friends in every county and particularly to the Republican press of the state I express my sincere gratitude for their loyal, unselfish support.

FRANK B. WILLIS."

PROHIBITION CLOSE

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Columbus, O., November 6. — Returns received this afternoon from 4,607 precincts in the state, including 35 complete counties, indicate that the vote for and against state wide prohibition is running very close.

With that number of precincts reported the vote for prohibition was 347,952 and the vote against it was 358,424, a wet majority of 10,472. Approximately 1150 precincts, mostly rural and dry, were yet to be heard from.

WETS LEADING IN THE MORNING COUNT

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Columbus, O., November 6. — Up to 9:45 today 3816 precincts had been received and tabulated and showed the wets still leading by more than 27,500 votes. The vote stood: For 280,119; against 307,631.

Governor Cox took a slight jump over his opponent shortly before ten o'clock and increased his lead to 30,908 votes. The vote was from 4610 precincts heard from and gave Cox 392,878; Willis 361,570.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

St. Louis, Mo., November 6. — With one-third of the district's vote tabulated Speaker of the House of Representatives, Champ Clark, Democrat, is leading B. H. Dyer by approximately 1,000 votes, according to unofficial returns up to nine o'clock this morning.

FORCED TO REALIZE IMPENDING PERIL BY THE BRITISH SOUTHEAST OF VALENCIENNES AND THE FRENCH AND AMERICANS IN THE SEDAN SECTOR, GERMANY'S SHATTERED ARMIES ARE RAPIDLY RETREATING.

ORDERLY RETREAT IS FAST BECOMING A ROUT AS GERMAN TROOPS FLEE FROM THE ALLIES ABANDONING VAST STORES AND ARTILLERY

Sedan Believed to be Even Now Under Fire of the Heavy Guns of the American Forces Whose Victory is Growing Greater Every Hour.

BERLIN, via London, November 6. — (Associated Press Cable)—An official statement issued here today says: "A German delegation to conclude an armistice and take up peace negotiations has left for the western front."

SHATTERED ARMIES IN RETREAT

(By The War Editor of The Associated Press)

Forced to a realization of impending peril by the progress of the British southeast of Valenciennes and the French and Americans south of Sedan, Germany's shattered armies are in rapid retreat from the Belgian frontier to the Aisne river. So rapid is the retirement that it is very difficult to determine the exact location of the retreating forces along this 85 miles of front.

BRITISH CLEAR MORVAL FOREST

British forces have cleared the barrier of Morval forest and threaten to drive a wedge between Mons and Maubeuge. To the south the French have launched an attack that has forced the enemy back from three to four miles while along the Meuse the Americans, in close co-operation with the French just to the westward, have overcome a stubborn resistance by the enemy and move still forward.

RETREAT BECOMING A ROUT

There is evidence that the Germans are not carrying out the orderly retreat that marked their retirement from the Marne and Somme salients. Batteries of field guns with horses attached have been captured and a vast quantity of munitions which could be moved quickly under ordinary circumstances have fallen into the hands of the allies.

GHEENT IS CLOSELY INVESTED

To the north Ghent is closely invested by the French, Belgians and British troops. The fighting there is apparently between German rear guards and the allied forces for civilians are said to be close behind the lines and Queen Elizabeth of Belgium from the beginning of the assault against the city.

SCHIEDT NO LONGER PROTECTION

The line of the Schiedt is no longer any protection to the enemy in Belgium. It has been crossed everywhere from Ghent to Valenciennes and it is probable that allied troops have been flung across the canal north of Ghent. Between Ghent and Brussels there is no great natural obstacle except the Dendre river which will aid the Germans in conducting defensive operations and it seems probable that the enemy will not turn at bay until he reaches the Brussels-Antwerp line which is said to have been prepared for a grim struggle.

AMERICANS CROSS MEUSE

American forces north of Verdun have crossed the Meuse at three points and have gained ground on the east side of the river. This advance is most important for it threatens the Sedan-Longuyon line at a new point and removes from the Germans the advantage of having a position on the flank of the American forces advancing northward on the eastern side of the stream. Sedan must be under artillery fire from the medium calibre American guns.

FORD RUNNING A CLOSE RACE

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Detroit, Mich., November 6. — Tuesday's election for United States senator in Michigan has narrowed down to a nip and tuck race with Lieutenant Commander Truman H. Newberry, republican, maintaining a narrow lead over Henry Ford, democrat.

A careful compilation made by the Associated Press at 11:30 o'clock based on returns from practically 75 per cent of the precincts in the state gave Newberry 173,103 and Ford 171,377. These figures gave the republican candidate a majority of 1,726 over his Democratic opponent.

THREE MILE GAIN BY AMERICANS

(By Associated Press Cable)

With the American Army on the Sedan Front, 3:00 p. m., November 6. — American troops continued the advance today between the Meuse and the Bar, moving forward at one place more than three miles.

KING BORIS OUSTED

KING BORIS OF BULGARIA

King Boris of Bulgaria, who ascended the throne on October 3, has abdicated, according to a report from Copenhagen. A Peasant Government has been established at Timova under the leadership of M. Stamboulysky, who has been chief of the Peasants and Agrarians of Bulgaria for some time. He is reported to be at the head of the new Government of Bulgaria, and is said to be in command of a Republican army of 40,000 men.

DISPOSITION OF KAISER IS A PUZZLE

The German People Continue to Argue About the Future of Hohenzollerns.

The Junkers Want Dynasty to Remain and Socialists Want Ruling House to Go.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Washington, November 6. — Abdication of the Kaiser still is a moot question in Germany, according to reports reaching Washington through official channels.

The military clique and Pan-Germans are making desperate efforts to save the House of Hohenzollern while Socialist leaders and others demand its fall.

Officials expect events of the near future will reveal the full extent of the numerous intrigues.

On the day that the German emperor addressed his transcript to the Chancellor saying that the "Kaiser's office is one of service to the people" the semi-official Wolff agency sent to Switzerland and Germany a telegram which officials say may explain why the transcript dated October 23 was not published until November 3.

BRITISH PURSUE FLEEING ENEMY

(By Associated Press Cable)

London, November 6. — The British last night continued to press after the Germans beyond the Morval forest where they have reached the main road from Avesnes to Bavay. Field Marshal Haig announced today.

PLAIN TALK TO GERMANY

By Associated Press Dispatch.
Washington, November 5.—The text of Secretary Lansing's note to the Swiss minister follows:

I have the honor to request you to transmit the following communication to the German government:

In my note of October 23, 1918, I advised you that the President had transmitted his correspondence with the German authorities to the governments with which the government of the United States is associated as a belligerent, with the suggestion that, if those governments were disposed to accept peace upon the terms and principles indicated, their military advisers and the military advisers of the United States be asked to submit to the governments associated against Germany the necessary terms of such an armistice as would fully protect the interests of the peoples involved and insure to the associated governments the unrestricted power to safeguard and enforce the details of the peace to which the German government had agreed, provided they deem such an armistice possible from the military point of view.

The President is now in receipt of a memorandum of observations by the allied governments on this correspondence, which is as follows:

"The allied governments have given careful consideration to the correspondence which has passed between the President of the United States and the German government. Subject to the qualifications which follow they declare their willingness to make peace with the government of Germany on the terms of peace laid down in the President's address to Congress of January, 1918, and the principles of settlement enunciated in his subsequent addresses. They must point out, however, that clause two relating to war is usually described as the freedom of the sea is open to various interpretations, some of which they could not accept. They must therefore reserve to themselves complete freedom on this subject when they enter the peace conference.

"Further in the conditions of peace laid down in his address to Congress of January, 1918, the President declared that invaded territories must be restored as well as evacuated and freed, the allied governments feel that no doubt ought to be allowed to exist as to what this provision implies. By it they understand that compensation will be made by Germany for all damage done to the civilian population of the allies and their property by the aggression of Germany by land, by sea and from the air."

I am instructed by the President to say that he is in agreement with the interpretation set forth in the last paragraph of the memorandum above quoted. I am further instructed by the President to request you to notify the German government that Marshal Foch has been authorized by the government of the United States and its allied governments to receive properly accredited representatives of the German government and to communicate to them the terms of an armistice.

Accept, sir, the renewed assurances of my highest consideration.

ROBERT LANSING.

His death is learned with regret by a large number of relatives and friends.

Three children survive, Frank and Mrs. George Morris of Milledgeville, and Herman of Detroit, Mich.

MANY DIVORCE ACTIONS FILED

All the submarines and barred zones are not in the Atlantic—some of them are on the domestic seas of Clinton County, according to the records in Clerk of Court Weltz's office.

There have been 11 cases filed in the Court since October 11, the Clerk is able to show by his books, and of the 11 eight have been divorce cases. It seems that the folks just can't get along, is about the only explanation that can be noticed in the perusal of the petitions.—Wilmington News.

WILL LIFT BAN AFTER FRIDAY

It was announced by the Health Authorities Wednesday afternoon that after Friday of this week the ban on holding public meetings in the city as well as the ban on pool rooms, theatres, churches and schools, will be lifted, unless there should be unexpected renewal of the influenza, a thing which is not regarded as at all likely. For nearly 6 weeks ban has been on in this city and the lifting will be welcomed by everyone.

The ban will be removed beginning Saturday morning, and while the ban will be lifted completely, the lifting does not mean that persons should not exercise care as a precaution against contracting the disease, it is urged by the health authorities.

ADOPTS CHILDREN AND LATER DIES

By Associated Press Dispatch.
Wellston, November 5.—Mrs. John Scott, aged 28, who adopted her nieces, Mildred, aged 12, and Gwendolyn, aged 4, after the death of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Knox, from influenza at Gallipoli two weeks ago, is dead at her home in Waverly from the same disease. The women were daughters of Rev. M. H. Rice, retired Methodist minister of this city, who was stricken with paralysis while attending conference at Portsmouth six weeks ago.

BULGARS ANXIOUS TO RUSH SERBIAN PRISONERS HOME

By Associated Press Dispatch.
Washington, November 5.—An official dispatch today to the Serbian legation from Saloniki said Serbian prisoners were returning home from Bulgaria in deplorable condition after three years of suffering, and that many had died enroute, almost without reach of their native land. The number of prisoners had not been determined, it was stated, because of the great haste of the Bulgarian government to get them home as soon as possible, so Serbian military and government officials would not see the camps in which they had been living.

In addition to prisoners of war, 200,000 civilians deported by the Bulgarian authorities are struggling home.

MUST TELL IT TO GENERAL FOCH

By Associated Press Dispatch.
London, Nov. 6.—The allies have decided that Germany must apply to Marshal Foch, the allied commander-in-chief, for an armistice, Premier Lloyd George said in the house of commons today.

The terms agreed upon by the allies, the premier added, have been transmitted to President Wilson, with the request that he inform the German government that if they wish to know the conditions they should apply to Marshal Foch in the usual military form. Whatever Germany's reply might be, the associated powers awaited the issue with perfect confidence.

Mr. Lloyd George stated that if the application was made by Germany it had been decided that the British naval representatives would be associated with Marshal Foch at the conference.

BANK HOLDING SACK

By Associated Press Dispatch.
New York, November 5.—The Prussian state Bank in Berlin has been the victim of a singular fraud, say German newspapers. A foreign commercial house transmitted to the bank the sum of 600,000 marks to be credited to the account of a foreign bank. The letter referring to the transaction was intercepted and a forged letter was submitted in which the bank was directed to deposit the sum to the credit of a Berlin metal firm.

Two days later the metal firm drew the amount in cash. The fraud was discovered some time later when the foreign bank desired to make use of the money. It was then discovered that the metal firm was not in existence.

TEACHER ACCUSED.

(By Associated Press Cable)
Boston, November 5.—Professor Camillo Schneider, employed by Harvard University in scientific research at the Arnold Arboreum, was arraigned before the federal commissioner here today charged with violation of the trading-with-the-enemy act and was held for a hearing. It is alleged that the defendant has been sending large sums of money to Austria and the government is concerned as to what use was made of it there. He is registered as a German alien.

A Smart Boot

To Complete Your Costume

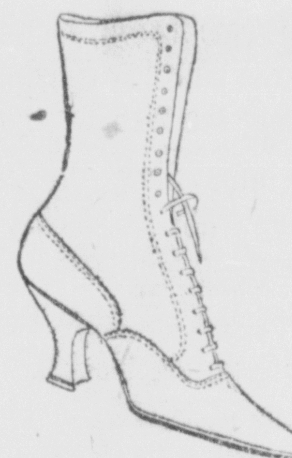

THE woman whose watchword in choosing accessories for her winter costumes is quiet elegance, must appreciate the splendid style and refinement of the footwear found in our shoe section.

There is a smartly designed boot of soft, serviceable kid, in Gray, Black or Brown; 8-inch tops and smart military heels; there are varied styles as to "tips and tops," some tips perforated, some plain, some all leather tops, some cloth in a harmonizing shade. A practical boot for dress or street wear.

Gray Lace Boot

Another style feature is a Gray Lace Boot, Louis Heel, 9-inch top, and plain slender toe. Variations of this are black or brown kid and cloth tops.

Good Shoes for The Youngsters

No better shoes for school or dress wear can be found than those we are showing now. They are "built from the ground up"—literally—for their first consideration is a stout leather sole picked for its wearing qualities. Uppers in high grade calfskin strongly sewed and reinforced. Bring the kiddies in for a fit.

ALLIED CAMPAIGN SHAKES HUN PIVOT

With the French Army in France, November 5.—The Franco-American operations west of the Meuse since November 1 have shaken the pivot upon which the entire German retreat turns. The Germans are still making a stout resistance, without modifying the salient feature of the situation, which is that their armies west of the Meuse are practically cut off from direct communication with Metz.

The main reliance of the Germans now is on the line of the Meuse which they appear determined to defend, while west of the river their principal resistance is along the Ardennes Canal. French troops have reached this obstacle from Rilly-Aux-Bois, at the bend of the Aisne to the River Bar. Here they have encountered sustained artillery, machine gun and musketry fire.

The Germans are still holding along the Aisne between Bethel and Chateau Porcien, while further west indications of a retreat were noticed last evening. The French in pursuit maintained contact with the enemy's rear guards, and this morning reached Herpy and the region east of Recouvance and Bannogne, as well as Height 98, southeast of Montigny le Court.

East of the Oise River French troops on the heels of the retreating enemy, have reached Audigny and La Herie La Vieville.

FAYETTE RESPONDS TO CALL FOR RECORDS

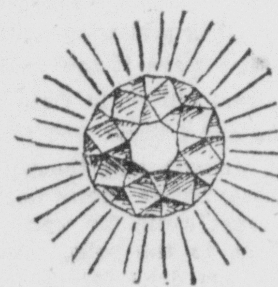

Fayette county did herself proud in responding to the urgent calls for "slacker" phonograph records, and five hundred records have been collected to be distributed to the soldiers and sailors.

These records are not old worn out ones, but good up to date music, the kind that the boys like to play. Those who responded so graciously also responded with fine spirit—"we wouldn't give to the boys those records that we don't want ourselves"—was the common sentiment. As soon as the apportionments are made, the records will be sent to the various camps.

There is still a big difference between an unconditional and a Hun conditional peace.—Newark News.

Marshall Foch's Thoughtfulness

Developments warrant us in concluding that Marshal Foch is a master diplomat as well as a master strategist in war—a master who appreciates the tremendous effect of the smaller things at least there is no positive evidence that Austria's collapse and surrender was not timed and arranged on the same superb and masterful idea which has wrecked, completely, in less than four months of offensive campaign the acclaimed invulnerable Teutonic war machine.

It may be, but it is not at all probable, that Austria-Hungary's urgent appeal for armistice terms remained unanswered until the Italian armies which have suffered so heavily and endured so much, been so constant and so patient through it all, had an opportunity to conclude their final campaign with a tremendous and decisive victory over their foes, by chance.

We prefer to believe that Marshal Foch knew the burning desire of the Italians to administer the last blow to Austria-Hungary and thus substitute in Italian history the bright page of final victory, for the page which recorded the disastrous defeats of 1917 and the memorable retreats from the Isonzo front.

Austria-Hungary was willing to surrender before Italy launched her victorious offensive but Marshal Foch was not willing that she should—

That's what we want to believe and that's what developments warrant us in believing.

No wonder the allies are victorious.

We Must Not Forget

While not much is being said about it there are, occasionally, some indisputable indications that Great Britain is not going to forget, in shaping the terms of peace, the sinking of the Lusitania and the murder of Edith Cavéle.

The war lords of Germany have many crimes to answer for, but none of them are more indelibly impressed upon the memory of an outraged world than those two glaring horrors.

In monstrous crimes like those guilt is personal and not national. Such crimes cannot be expiated by the exaction of indemnities from the people of a nation or by the taking of territory. They find no justification in war and the guilty must be brought to the bar of justice.

We think the civilized world will support Sir Frederick Edward Smith, the British attorney general, in his contention that a grand court of allied representatives, civil and military, should be established for the purpose of trying the men—the individuals—guilty of these and other murders.

Murder is murder, no matter who commits it, and war cannot provide a cloak which will shield the guilty from just punishment at the hands of men.

Great Britain is not going to forget. Just vengeance must be taken.

Another Picture

The Hun peace representatives are to call upon Marshal Foch to discuss with him upon what terms and conditions they may secure the peace they so much desire.

We like that and we think that the great majority of people in all the allied nations will be pleased with that announcement. It was the vicious military power of Germany which plunged the world into war, it was that military power that compelled a peaceful and peace-loving world to take up arms to defend itself from ruin, it was that military power which the world realized it must destroy, it was that insolent autocratic power which violated every law of nations and every human impulse and that power should be compelled to humble itself in the chaos of the defeat which has overwhelmed it.

Then, too, people cannot forget that famous old picture they have seen so often of the military leaders of Germany, Von Moltke and Bismarck, the former standing and the latter seated, both with the typical Prussian frown of intolerance and hate, humbling the French leaders after Sedan by the imposition of the most humiliating terms of surrender.

That was Germany victorious in war.

The world wants a companion picture now—a picture of the autocratic military leaders of Germany receiving the terms, and the only terms, upon which they can have peace—the humbled and contrite German war lords receiving from Marshal Foch of France, commander of the allied armies, seeking peace on terms announced by him after the victory in the battle of France concluding the world war.

POEM FOR TODAY

JACV O'LANTERNS.

It seems so dark as we look forth
 Into the autumn night,
 And then—down on the nether rim
 A tiny speck of light!
 A tiny speck of light that vbers,
 That lifts and drifts and disappears.

And out we go with flying feet—
 No power can bid us bide—
 We chase the beckon of that light
 Across the meadows wide,
 It quits the swamp and skirts the hill,
 O luring light, be still, be still.

And when the chase is done we come
 Like children from a race,
 With hands that bleed from tangled thorns
 And seamed and saddened face
 For, oh, the light that lured us on
 Was phantom of some vapor born.

And comes a time when it seems dark
 As we gaze forth on life;
 And then—a ray of rosy light
 Across the dusk of strife.
 A wavering light, a signal meet
 And forth we fare on flying feet.

And once again, o'er field and wood
 We chase the flaunting gleam,
 Now faint and dim, now radiant-rayed
 As vestal of a dream.
 And we come back to our first goal
 With breast aheave and wakened soul.

For what we chased, my heart and I
 Was Love across the world,
 And we were winners, though we lost
 The pennant we unfurled;
 For crown of life we never miss,
 Though lips may mock or lips may kiss,
 If we reach high for Love.

GERMAN RETREAT IS CONTINUING

(By Associated Press Cable)

Paris, November 6.—The retreat of the Germans along the whole of the French front continues, according to the war office announcement today.

The French are in contact with the enemy's rear guards.

RUSS PRESS IS HARD HIT

(Associated Press Correspondence)

London, November 5.—(By Mail)—

Newspaper men have suffered more than any other class of Russians from the Bolshevik regime. They are the only ones absolutely unable to find employment and who are condemned by the Bolsheviks to literal starvation.

From the very first day the Bolshevik assumed control of the country fines, imprisonment, and suppression of papers were more frequent than ever in the worst period of the Emperor's rule. The fines imposed by the Bolshevik commissars were incomparably heavier than in the old days, when 3,000 rubles was the maximum amount. They fined papers 20,000 rubles for publishing war news without permission, and one Moscow paper was fined 20,000 rubles for the same offense. For spreading "provocative rumors" in Moscow alone, in one day, four newspapers were suppressed, five were heavily fined and ten were indicted for "reports tending to discredit the government."

The publishers could not stand the heavy drain of constant fines, the editors dreaded the prospect of a more or less protracted stay in prison, and the reporters were afraid to write about anything reflecting upon Bolshevik methods, as that might be construed an attempt to discredit the government. A newspaper acquaintance of the writer, a member of the staff of a most progressive daily, after having been twice imprisoned and his paper made to pay a fine of 10,000 rubles for an inoffensive article, confessed that he was at a loss as to what to do, how to write.

Whenever public dissatisfaction became too pronounced the government suppressed all non-Bolshevik, "bourgeois" publications. This example of Bolshevik statesmanship was emulated by the Petrograd and other soviet so that the Russian press entirely ceased to exist.

Barring the official Izvestia, the Police Gazette, as some would call it—published by every local soviet, and the organs of the Bolshevik and Left Social—Revolutionary parties, not a single newspaper is published in Soviet Russia at present. All those who made a living by writing for the press now find themselves in dire straits and face poverty and starvation if unwilling to change their political faith and join the ranks of Bolshevik journalism.

Germany, cracking under the strain, asks that the strain be removed. That's all.—Chicago Tribune.

News of Interest to Women

A very jolly "Roast" was enjoyed at the Craig cottage at Cedar Hurst, with Miss Mary Craig hostess, Tuesday night.

Those who participated were Misses Bernice and Florence Boggs, Miriam Fite, Louise Weaver, Ethel Calvert, Josephine Hidy, Ruth Smith, Elizabeth Johnson, Prudence Culhan, Jean Howat.

A most enjoyable day was spent Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. William Meyers and family, Mr. and Mrs. Horatio Wilson and daughter, when Mrs. Lester Dodds, daughter Norma, Mrs. Eugene Burris, son Eugene, Mrs. Jesse Todd and daughter, Dortha Fern all of this city, motored to the Meyers home near Bloomingburg.

An oyster supper, with all appetizing accessories was much enjoyed at the home of Mrs. Howard Jefferson in Bloomingburg Tuesday night by a select group of young women including Mrs. Jefferson, Mesdames Maude Howland, Lucile Allernang, Glenn Nisley, Misses Ollie Swope and Verne Elliott.

The table looked exceedingly pretty with decorations of pink chrysanthemums and autumn leaves.

A dinner on the third of November with summer products on the table—green corn, fresh tomatoes, ripe cucumbers, delicious strawberries, fresh picked, garnishes of mint and parsley, and crowning joy—a bowl of lovely roses gathered in a home garden—would you believe it? But is no fairy tale, just the results of this beautiful fall and careful tending and the combination produced a perfect dinner in one of Washington's homes.

"Miss Mary Love who has been superintending and dictating of the Lazarus restaurant of Columbus, a favorite dining place with Chillicotheans is to sail soon for France, where 4000 boys in an aviation camp will learn what delicious dishes she is capable of concocting.

She is a graduate of the Manhattan school of Domestic Science and Art, Manhattan, Kansas, and is recognized as an authority on home economics."—Chillicothe News-Advertiser.

A great burst of patriotism will be given expression in a big "Victory Sing" on Thanksgiving afternoon at Camp Sherman in which the military and civil population will join with a spirit of real, deep thanksgiving in compliance with instructions received by Prof. John A. Jones from Washington.

The plans for this "national victory sing," in which all Americans are asked to join at 4 o'clock, Eastern time, were completed by the National Council of Women, the idea being to give thanksgiving at a concerted time in which the same program of songs is to be used the country over.

Programs will be sent to state, community and war camp song leaders, in order to insure the singing of the same songs throughout the country. All theatre managers in the United States will also be urged to ask their audiences to sing the national anthem.—The Scioto Gazette.

The Chi Delta Chi Club is making arrangements to give the Christmas dance and expect to make it the big event of the holiday season.

"In that old fight between opposing ideals, of which the glimmer still so remarkably remains, there were many heroic ladies too, to whom it certainly had not been necessary to excuse oneself for loving honor more. Yet they were the exception; for woman still, for the most part, was either flower, toy, or household drudge. Her husband was expected to do all the thinking, and all the fighting.

"It is long since man did all the thinking, and now it has come about that woman is taking or prepared to take, no small share in the fighting as well. More and more men and women alike are realizing that 'the woman's cause' is man's—and the man's cause woman's. Therefore it is that, in the present war, the men who go to fight have no need to excuse themselves to their sweet hearts for loving honor more, for the women have taken the old song out of their mouths. Woman, though her life is bound up in them by those tragic bonds which a woman must always feel more, elementally than a man—mother, wife, sweetheart, or sister; she now—loves honor more; and such words as 'slacker' represent her feeling towards the man who would stay behind on the pretense that he loved her more than honor.

It is she that no sends him into the battle, prepared, so far as she is able to join him there, and ashamed and insulted to her very soul should a man of her house be ready to take advantage of exemption clauses, which would keep him safe at home among her petticoats—when she any longer wears them.

It is not for nothing but for a deep if involuntary, spiritual reason that woman herself is taking so active a part in this war, that she is under shell fire on every front, in hospitals and ambulance wagons, and even, like the Russian "Battalion of Death," actively under arms. For she who has always sat at the Point of Being intuitively divines that this war is one of those wherein the very soul must fight for its existence, a war of Light and Darkness, of Ahimsa and Ormuzd." Richard Le Gallienne.—Harper's Bazaar.

A steady line of automobiles fills the road near the munitions plants, Chester, Pa., every morning. From them step women, who hurry through the gate, punch time clocks, don overalls or bloomers and all day long toil side by side with women and girls from the neighborhood obliged to earn their living. By count, 5000 women, whose most strenuous work a few years ago was a game of golf or tennis, are working eight hours a day and not complaining about it either. Among them are a number of suffragists known over the country as well as in their own state.

Ortman the first of the week, leaving Wednesday morning, via the Santa Fe, for their new home in Los Angeles, Cal. The future business plans of Mr. Ortman and his son-in-law are as yet undecided, but it is quite probable that they will engage in the automobile business, in which they have been so successful in this section of the State. PLUCKY GIRL SAVES PURSE AND MONEY

Only pure pluck on the part of Miss Dora McLean, employed at the Edgar Snyder insurance office, saved her pocketbook and some ten dollars it contained Tuesday evening, when she accosted a girl whom she suspected of stealing her purse and forced her to surrender the purse.

Miss McLean had made a purchase and had left the store where she had made the purchase forgetting that her purse had been left on the counter.

Discovering her loss after reaching the outside of the store she returned and the purse was gone. Two girls near the counter started hurriedly from the store, and Miss McLean's suspicions were aroused with the result that she followed them and under threats of turning them over to the police, obtained the purse and money, and the girl that had taken it begged that she not be turned over to the police.

RED CROSS ACTIVITIES

RED CROSS NOW HAS PERMANENT OFFICE

The corner room of the Y. M. C. A. block is comfortably fitted up as a permanent office for the Red Cross and the Civilian Relief.

Both Mrs. Eva J. Penn, chairman of the Red Cross work shop, and Miss Mary Robinson, chairman of the Red Cross Home Service Department, have their desks there and are in the office as much of the time as is possible to attend to incessant demands.

Miss Robinson finds so many calls imperative that she will be compelled to devote her mornings to field work. Her office hours will be from 2 to 5 each afternoon unless an appointment is desired, which can be asked for at any time.

The Knitting department in charge of Mrs. Charles Lewis is in the rear of the office. Miss Edith Gardner, chairman Surgical Dressing's department continues in the same upstairs headquarters.

CHRISTMAS BOXES FOR SOLDIERS IN FRANCE AT RED CROSS ROOMS

The Christmas boxes for the soldiers in France have arrived and can be secured at the Red Cross rooms in the Y. M. C. A. block by presenting the necessary label. Having the label is essential to the securing of the box and not having them is distressing, many a mother or sister, who has not received from her soldier overseas the label he is required to send if he receives a Xmas box.

The boxes seem very small judged by the desire of the gift-givers and how to make the space count for most—shall it be hats? Wearables? Games? Toilets accessories?

These new items have been added to the original ones suggested for these Xmas boxes. The new list: Cigarettes, wrist watch, fountain pen and ink tablets, hard candy, cakes, ring, razor, razor blades, gloves, leather case, money belt, dictionary, toothbrush, tooth paste, knife, soap (Palm Olive), handkerchiefs, dried or candied fruits, checkers, dominoes, pencils, playing cards, diary, French book, leather case for photos, trench mirror.

Mrs. Sherman Murry and Mrs. Glenn Rodgers are in charge of the giving out of these Christmas cartons and to them is assigned the unpleasant duty of refusing a carton to those not presenting labels. They have a number of assistants and the "Christmas Carton" department of the Red Cross will be a busy place this week.

GOODS TAKE PLACE OF RUSSIAN MONEY

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Moscow, November 6.—The lack of money and the great depreciation of the Russian ruble has compelled the soviet government to resort to the primitive form of trade—exchange of goods. This form has been applied in Russia in a limited degree, because of lack of manufactured articles, the government giving the peasants agricultural machinery, leather goods, nails, matches and other such necessities and receiving the equivalent value in grain. It is the intention of the Department of Trade to introduce the exchange of goods system into international trade and for this purpose it sent a special emissary to Norway to negotiate with the Norwegian government.

HUNS MUST PAY BILLS OF DAMAGE

Germany Can Have Peace on Basis of President Wilson's Plan But Must Pay Enormous Damage Bill.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Washington, November 6.

—Germany can have peace on the terms and principles enunciated by President Wilson, but it must pay an enormous indemnity for the wanton destruction wrought by its forces on land and sea and in the air.

The German government is so informed in a note from Secretary Lansing now on its way to Berlin and which also announces that Marshal Foch has been authorized by the government of the United States and the allies "to receive properly accredited representatives of the German government and to communicate to them the terms of the armistice," under which hostilities can be brought to an end.

Secretary Lansing's note, "a memorandum of observations" by the allied governments on the President's correspondence with the German authorities in which those governments declare their willingness to make peace with the government of Germany in accord with the President's program.

GERMAN PEOPLE ARE APPEALED TO

The government manifesto which was issued today says Germany is being changed to a Democratic state but if the transformation is to be a success there must be self discipline among the people.

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Get Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative.

No griping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark brown mouth" now and then—a bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver and are constipated, you'll find quick, sure and only pleasant results from one or two little Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.

Thousands take one or two every night just to keep right. Try them. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

REPUBLICANS ARE WINNERS IN FAYETTE

Increased Majority For Prohibition Is Returned By Fayette Voters Who Come Out in Surprising Force During Last Hours of Voting.

An Unusually Large Number of Straight Tickets Voted—Election Marked by Unusual Quietness.

Without exception every Republican candidate in Fayette county was elected in Tuesday's election, by a decisive majority, and the vote polled was considerably larger than indicated until a few hours of closing the polls, the total vote in Fayette county as near as can be ascertained, being near 4800.

The election was marked by unusual quietness from beginning to end, although the results were eagerly awaited by thousands of persons throughout the county, the chief interest centering in the contest for governor and in the prohibition vote.

For Governor the unofficial vote in Fayette county was: Willis 2665; Cox 1948, or a marked gain for Willis over the returns of two years ago.

In the vote on prohibition the drys had a majority of 880 votes, the unofficial canvass showing 2394 for prohibition and 1514 against prohibition.

The number of straight tickets voted was one of the surprises of the election in Fayette county. In Yatesville precinct alone out of 66 Republican ballots cast, 52 were voted straight.

Hon. Frank C. Parrett, candidate for State Senator in the Fifth-Sixth District, receiving a large complimentary vote in each of the several counties in the district.

For Representative Harry F. Brown won a decisive victory over Henry T. Hughes, his majority being nearly 1200.

In the contest between Frank M. Allen and Edwin Weaver for the Probate Judgeship, Allen won by an overwhelming vote.

The new commissioners-elect are: John Browning, Howard Hagler and Elmer Junk.

David Whiteside, of Paint township, won the trusteeship, defeating R. N. Stuckey by a large vote, and Ray Moots defeated Horace Ireland in the contest for the Clerk of the common pleas court.

County Auditor Glenn M. Pine was returned to office with a large complimentary vote.

County Recorder C. M. Johnson won an easy victory over Thos. L. Collopy.

Frank M. Kennedy for County Surveyor and County Road Superintendent had no opposition, and Prosecutor Harry M. Rankin also had no opposition.

While throughout the state generally the vote was very slow in coming in, the canvass in Fayette county generally proceeded quite rapidly, altho in some of the larger precincts it was well toward midnight before the final returns were available.

FAYETTE FIRST TO MAKE REPORT

Through the splendid co-operation of representatives of The Herald in each precinct in Fayette county, and the speedy compilation of the returns as received, Fayette County was the first county in the state to furnish a complete report on the vote for governor and on prohibition.

The total vote on governor was available shortly after 10:30 p. m. and the prohibition vote a half hour later. The Associated Press was immediately notified and a few moments later the result in Fayette county was known throughout the state and bulletined accordingly.

This is the second time that Fayette county has been first, in recent years, among her 88 sister counties in Ohio, and each time it has been due to the loyal support of the corps of assistants reaching into every precinct in the county.

TERMS TOO HARSH THINKS CHARLES

(By Associated Press Cable) Copenhagen, November 5.—Emperor Charles found the conditions of the armistice offered by the allies so harsh and considered them so dishonorable that he would not sign them, says a Vienna dispatch to the Berlin Tageblatt. The emperor declared he no longer wished to exercise his authority as supreme commander of the army. The conditions were finally signed by Field Marshal Arz von Straussenburg, the chief of staff. The dispatch denies rumors that Emperor Charles had abdicated and was leaving for Switzerland.

FOCH WILL GIVE TERMS TO GERMANY

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Washington, November 6.—Marshal Foch has been authorized by the United States and the allies to receive representatives of the German government and to communicate to them the terms of an armistice.

The German government is so informed in a note handed to the Swiss minister here today by secretary Lansing.

The note announces that the allied governments have declared their willingness to make peace with the German government on the terms laid down in the president's address to Congress last January and on the principles of settlement enunciated in his subsequent addresses.

The allies reserve to themselves, however, complete freedom of action when they enter the peace conference on the subject of the freedom of the seas.

It was further stated with reference to restoration of invaded territories that the allied governments understand that compensation will be made by Germany for all damage to the civilian population of the allies and their property as the result of the aggression of Germany "by land, by sea and from the air."

Germany's Fuel Cut Off

One effect of the elimination of Austria from the war, the fuel administration announced tonight, will be the cutting off of Germany's supplies of fuel, oil and gasoline.

Germany has been obtaining fuel oil and gasoline from Galicia and Roumania and was planning to import extensively from the Caucasus, the announcement said, but under the terms of the Austrian armistice all traffic between Germany and her former ally must stop.

Within the German borders there are no supplies of fuel, oil and information possessed by the fuel administration is that Germany has been using benzol—a derivation of coal tar—for lubricating oil. This latter source, it was said, will not supply German needs.

The Italian fuel situation, which has been serious from the beginning of the war, it was said, will not be improved materially by the Austrian armistice. The Austrian mines, worked to full capacity, furnish only enough coal for the nation's needs. Demobilization of the Austrian army will allow the return of miners to their work and thereby probably prevent suffering because of lack of fuel within that nation this winter, but will not provide supplies sufficient to aid Italy.

BIG SCREEN KEEPS CITIZENS POSTED

The big screen in front of The Herald office Tuesday night speedily reflected all available election returns from the county, state and nation, and a large crowd assembled early and watched the trend of the battle of ballots until late into the night.

The extreme slowness of the returns from over the state becoming available left the result very much clouded even until the early morning hours, when the trend for governor began to turn toward Gov. Cox and in the prohibition vote began to lean toward the wets.

Deep interest was manifested in the results, but the usual enthusiasm which had characterized the campaign and election, also was manifested in the receipt of the returns, probably due to the fact that state returns until midnight told little as to which way the vote was going.

To safeguard the big crowd, the street was roped off during the period the returns were flashed on the screen.

Inside The Herald office a corps of workers labored from before seven o'clock until after midnight, receiving and compiling the election returns, preparing bulletins for the screen, and answering countless numbers of telephone inquiries.

Only those who have assisted in the work of compiling election returns know of the magnitude of the undertaking; the detail preparations necessary before hand, and the unceasing work in tabulating the returns from each precinct, while responding to hundreds of telephone inquiries for the latest news.

HOW A SALESMAN SUFFERED
R. J. Porter, Sterling, Colo., writes: "I suffered with a painful, weak back. As traveling salesman I had to stoop frequently to pick up my grips, and the pain when I straightened up was awful. I was induced to try Foley's Kidney Pills. Relief was immediate. Say, they are great." Prompt and tonic. Blackmer & Tanquary, Advt.

DIVORCE ACTION IN PROBATE COURT

Geo. Aills, against Mabel Aills is the style of the latest divorce action in the Probate Court, in which the plaintiff charges the defendant with gross neglect of duty, alleging that she has been guilty of leaving home on numerous occasions and remaining away for sometime, and that about one year ago she left and has since remained away.

FULL OF COLD; HAD THE GRIP

Many will be pleased to read how Lewis Newman, 506 Northrand St., Charleston, W. Va., was restored to health. He writes: "I was down sick and nothing would do me any good. I was full of cold. Had the grip until I got two 50c bottles of Foley's Honey and Tar. It is the best remedy for grip and colds I ever used. Blackmer & Tanquary. Advt.

AFTER THE GRIPPE

To regain your health and strength again you must take a tonic and for this purpose the Medical Profession is prescribing Iron Nux Vomica, Phosphate Capsicum and Zinc Phosphide in some form. Many preparations containing iron are very constipating, but this is overcome by the addition of Aloin in Chase's Blood and Nerve Tablets, which contain all of the above tonic remedies.

In these Tablets you have all that is good in tonic medicines without any harmful effects. They are safe and sure health builders and at this particular time it would be hard to over estimate their value.
